4. Clandestine Services Review (CSR)

For the purpose of discussion and consideration a draft schedule for future CSR presentations has been submitted to CH/OS and C/OS. This draft schedule provides for full day instruction the first week and half day during the second week. In order to accomplish this it was necessary to eliminate some of the DD/I, DD/P and DD/S presentations and to reduce the time previously allotted to other presentations.

5. Project Useful

This course scheduled to begin 29 October was cancelled on 25 October as a result of the Cuban crisis.

6. [REDACTED]

Course No. 6 began on 29 October with an enrollment of sixteen persons, one of whom withdrew on 30 October due to schedule conflicts.

7. I gave a lecture on the Clandestine Services on this date in a Security Officers Orientation Course.

8. I am auditing as much as possible of the Operations Support Course which began on 29 October.

9. On 30 October I met with Mr. [REDACTED] of the A&E Staff to discuss an interrogation course proposal made to him by Mr. [REDACTED] and others of the Office of Security. Mr. [REDACTED] brought me up to date on his staff's interest in the subject of interrogation, and I did likewise for the Operations School. He agreed to pursue mutually with the Office of Security its interest in possibly setting up a course in interrogation. It was agreed that Mr. [REDACTED] would discuss this matter at his next routine meeting with representatives of the Office of Security and that we would all get together at such time as relocation of A&E Staff functional responsibilities is known.

C. OPERATIONS SUPPORT FACULTY

1. Operations Support Course

Course No. 53 with an enrollment of ten students started Monday, 29 October. Seven of the current group are scheduled for overseas assignments.

2. Mrs. [REDACTED] met with the Chief of the Finance Division and the following was discussed:

a. In August of 1961 meetings were held with the Comptroller and his staff to obtain a decision on the method used in recording foreign travel.
